Dear Mr. Cohen:

The West Palm Beach Public Library is happy to be exhibiting your fine sculptures. The exhibit will run from January 30, 1984 thru February 9, 1984. We have extended insurance coverage over the 18 pieces which are listed on the attached sheet.

Catalog brochures will be ready on January 31, 1984.

We will attempt to sell, at the price listed, any work in which a potential customer shows an interest. And as we discussed, the Friends of the West Palm Beach Public Library will be entitled to a 20% commission on any sales.

Because we will be preparing to install carpet immediately after your show closes it is essential that you pick-up your work on the morning of February 10, 1984.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Cohen,

The Art in Public Places Committee and the City of West Palm Beach, Florida, sincerely extends our appreciation for the sharing of your beautiful talents with our City.

The display of your works enhanced the public awareness of the creative artist and your contribution to our growing community.

There were all wonderfully positive reactions to your showing, and we are looking forward to calling on you again in the future.

With continued creativity and success in your endeavor.

Sincerely,

Rick Reikenis
Mayor

Mr. Cohen, of Delray Beach, was formerly a successful New York Realtor who has found the craft of sculpture to be a pleasant release of creative energies. He has exhibited in many Northeastern galleries, winning prizes and awards in many competitions. This display includes 18 sculptures of various sizes, carved from exotic woods, including several different rosewoods, zebrawood, and tama wood.
